POLICIES
Attendance policy	The student must attend 100% of practical and 60% of lectures. In case of skipping classes, the student must work missed class in accordance with the schedule of exercises, approved by the department in the presence of the relevant order of the dean's office.

Assessment policy	Assessment of current student performance is carried out in the form of surveys, tests of written work and practical skills, testing in each practical lesson on a four-point scale and converted into points according to the scale of recalculation of traditional grades. At the end of the academic year, the arithmetic mean of student performance is calculated. The maximum number of points that a student can receive in practical classes during academic year - 120. The student is admitted to the test subject to the requirements of the academic year program and if for the current educational activity he scored at least 72 points. The test consists of the following parts: testing by radiographs and other results of radiological examinations (20 points), testing of theoretical knowledge. (10 points), written answers to theoretical questions (30 points), interpretation and written description of radiographs (20 points). The credit is credited to the student if he scored at least 48 points out of 80. Incentive points are added to the grade in the discipline for implementation of an individual research project (defense of student science work 12 points, speech at the conference 5 points, poster presentation at the conference 4 points, thesis reports 3 points). The total score in the discipline may not exceed 200 points.
Deadlines and course retake policy	In case of unsatisfactory result the student has the right twice retake the semester exam - the first time the examiner, appointed by the head of the department, the second - the commission, which created by the dean's office. Re-examination is carried out by a separate schedule approved by the dean's office. Students, who did not appear for the exam without good reason are considered those that received an unsatisfactory grade. Student refusal to perform the examination task is certified as unsatisfactory reply. The student has the right to receive an explanation of received assessment.
Assessment appeals policy	The results of the module and semester assessment are subject to appeal. A student must lodge an appeal to the director/dean on the day of certification or after announcing the results, but no later than the next working day. The appeal commission is established by the director/dean's order. The appeal commission's decision may change the grade in case of violations revealed during the attestation.
Academic integrity policy	Participants must complete all tasks according to the course requirements independently. Participants are not allowed to cheat during the written module or summative test. The assignments should not contain plagiarism, facts of fabrication, falsification, cheating. Manifestations of other types of academic dishonesty determined by the Academic Integrity policy are also unacceptable. If a teacher reveals violations of academic integrity by students during the course, the former have the right to take one of the following actions: - to reduce points by up to 40% for practical assignments; - to give recommendations for improving and resubmitting mandatory homework assignments with the reduction of points by up to 25%; - to not accept mandatory homework assignments without the right to resubmit; - set a date for retaking the written module or the summative test with a reduction of points by up to 15%; - to not allow to retake the written module or the summative test.
