Assessment policy	When mastering the student's course materials for each practical the lesson is assigned a maximum of 5 points (grade is given in traditional 4-point grading system). In the end The semester is calculated by the arithmetic mean student performance. The maximum number of points that a student can get in practical classes during the training semester - 120. The number of student points is calculated for formula: the arithmetic mean of the current performance multiply the estimates by 24. For example, if the arithmetic mean the number of current scores is 3.0, then $3 * 24 = 72$, this sum of points is minimum for admission to the test, or average the arithmetic of the current estimates is 5.0, then $5 * 24 = 120$, that is the maximum amount of points that a student can score for the current one progress. The same is charged for a presentation or abstract number of points, as for one current lesson. Student allowed to credit if the training requirements are met programs and if for current educational activities he scored at least 72 points. Final control: practice-oriented differentiated credit is conducted according to the schedule at the end of the semester. Credit tickets contain 3 theoretical questions on various topics and cover all sections of the discipline (20 points each), 1 practical task (10 points) and test questions (10 points). The credit is credited to the student if he scored at least 48 points out of 80. The score for the final control is set in traditional 4-point grading system followed translation into points, with, in general, a score of "5" corresponds to 80 points, "4" - 64 points, "3" - 48 points, "2" - 0 points. Overall rating for the discipline consists of the sum of points scored for the current success and preparation of the final control. Total score with discipline may not exceed 200 points.
Deadlines and course retake policy	In case of unsatisfactory result the student has the right twice to rearrange the final differentiated test - for the first time the examiner appointed by the head of the department, the second - commission created by the dean's office.
