POLICIES
Attendance policy	The student must attend 100% of practical and 60% of lectures. In case of skipping classes, the student must work out the missed class in accordance with the schedule of workings approved by the department in the presence of the relevant order of the dean's office.

Assessment policy	When mastering the materials of the module, the student is assigned a maximum of 5 points for each practical lesson (the grade is set in the traditional 4-point grading system). At the end of the academic year, the arithmetic mean of student performance is calculated. The maximum number of points that a student can get in practical classes during the academic year is 120. The number of student points is calculated by the formula 120 multiplied by the arithmetic mean and divided by 5. The form of the final module control - differential credit. The student is admitted to the final module control provided that the requirements of the curriculum are met and if he has scored at least 72 points for the current academic activity, which corresponds to the average score for the current mark "3". The final module control is carried out according to the schedule at the last practical lesson of the academic semester. Final module control (the maximum number of points that a student can score during the compilation is 80) includes control and evaluation of theoretical and practical training. The final modular control of the discipline includes answers to questions on various topics of the discipline (maximum number of points - 40; minimum - 24 points) and testing on a database of questions covering all sections of the discipline (maximum number of points - 40; minimum - 24 points). The final module control is credited to the student if he scored at least 48 points out of 80. Incentive points are added to the assessment of the discipline of individual research project (defense of student academic work 12 points, conference speech 5 points, conference presentation 4 points, abstracts 3 points). The total score in the discipline may not exceed 200 points.
Deadlines and course retake policy	In case of unsatisfactory result, the student has the right to reassign the semester final module control twice - the first time to the teacher appointed by the head of the department, the second - to the commission created by the dean's office. Rework of the final modular control is carried out according to a separate schedule, which is approved by the dean's office. Students who do not appear for the final module control without a good reason are considered to have received an unsatisfactory grade. The student's refusal to perform the tasks of the final module control is certified as an unsatisfactory answer. The student has the right to receive an explanation of the grade obtained.
Assessment appeals policy	The results of the module and semester assessment are subject to appeal. A student must lodge an appeal to the director/dean on the day of certification or after announcing the results, but no later than the next working day. The appeal commission is established by the director/dean's order. The appeal commission's decision may change the grade in case of violations revealed during the attestation.

Academic integrity policy	Participants must complete all tasks according to the course requirements independently. Participants are not allowed to cheat during the written module or summative test. The assignments should not contain plagiarism, facts of fabrication, falsification, cheating. Manifestations of other types of academic dishonesty determined by the Academic Integrity policy are also unacceptable. If a teacher reveals violations of academic integrity by students during the course, the former have the right to take one of the following actions: - to reduce points by up to 40% for practical assignments; - to give recommendations for improving and resubmitting mandatory homework assignments with the reduction of points by up to 25%; - to not accept mandatory homework assignments without the right to resubmit; - set a date for retaking the written module or the summative test with a reduction of points by up to 15%; - to not allow to retake the written module or the summative test.
